

ST. THOMAS SCHOOL, DHURWA, RANCHI

ENGLISH GRAMMAR

Chapter-14

TENSES

STD-6

Page: 81

B. Rewrite the sentences after correcting the errors.

- 1. He returns from London last week.
He returned from London last week.
- 2. I will see him yesterday.
I saw him yesterday.
- 3. The car looks dirty, so it was cleaned tomorrow.
The car looks dirty, so it will be cleaned tomorrow.
- 4. Deepu wishes to joined the army after he finishes school.
Deepu wishes to join the army after he finishes school.
- 5. Since I had no money, I did not went home.
Since I had no money, I did not go home.
- 6. Last night I dream of a huge chicken chasing me.
Last night I dreamt of a huge chicken chasing me.
- 7. The building will be built in 1893.
The building was built in 1893.

Chapter-15 (Page: 85)

B. Rewrite these sentences in the tense given in the bracket.

- 1. She made a life-size painting of the school. (present continuous tense)
She is making a life-size painting of the school.
- 2. I have been watching the bird make its nest every morning. (simple present tense)
I watch the bird make its nest every morning.
- 3. Omit.
- 4. They wait for the arrival of their cousins. (present continuous tense)
They are waiting for the arrival of their cousins.
- 5. I watched TV all day. (present perfect continuous tense)
I have been watching TV all day.
- 6. This team is scoring goals very fast. (simple present tense)
This team scores goals very fast.
- 7. I had gone to visit my grandparents. (present continuous tense)
I am going to visit my grandparents.

8. Omit.
9. She will pack her bags. (present perfect continuous tense)
She has been packing her bags.
10. They work for long hours. (present continuous tense)
They are working for long hours.

C. Rewrite the sentences after correcting the errors.

1. Ankita has already completing her Class XII exams.
Ankita has already completed her Class XII exams.
2. Rohit has enrol in a college.
Rohit has enrolled in a college.
3. Mohua has apply for several jobs.
Mohua has applied for several jobs.
4. I seen some interesting advertisements.
I have seen some interesting advertisements.
5. Jayant has decide to work in a bank.
Jayant has decided to work in a bank.
6. I are not working at present.
I am not working at present.
7. Why is all those people laughing?
Why are all those people laughing?
8. Shiv and his friends is practising judo.
Shiv and his friends are practising judo.
9. What game is those children playing?
What game are those children playing?
10. What you drinking?
What are you drinking?

Chapter-16 (Page: 90)

B. Rewrite the sentences in the tense given in the brackets.

1. The scientists were conducting an experiment. (simple past)
The scientists conducted an experiment.
2. She tried to fix the toy for her son. (past continuous)
She was trying to fix the toy for her son.
3. The teachers worked hard to make a time table suitable for everyone. (past perfect)
The teachers had worked hard to make a time table suitable for everyone.

4. She had burnt herself while lighting the candle. (simple past)
She burnt herself while lighting the candle.
5. Yani was working all night to finish her project. (past perfect continuous)
Yani had been working all night to finish her project.
6. Many students were feeling anxious before their exams. (past perfect)
Many students had felt anxious before their exams.
7. Kevin called his father while boarding the plane. (past continuous)
Kevin was calling his father while boarding the plane.
8. Omit.
9. We were trying to listen to the announcement on the noisy platform. (simple past)
We tried to listen to the announcement on the noisy platform.
10. I cut my finger while chopping vegetables for dinner. (past perfect)
I had cut my finger while chopping vegetables for dinner.

Chapter-17 (Page: 96)

C. Change these sentences from simple past tense to future tense.

1. I travelled to Myanmar to meet an old friend.
I will travel to Myanmar to meet an old friend.
2. She disguised herself as a beggar and walked towards her sister.
She will disguise herself as a beggar and will walk towards her sister.
3. After asking a passer-by for direction, we found our way to the campsite.
After asking a passer-by for direction, we will find our way to the campsite.
4. He took off his hat, bowed and greeted her as if she were a queen.
He will take off his hat, will bow and will greet her as if she were a queen.
5. We talked for over half an hour.
We will talk for over half an hour.
6. I showed her my coin collection.
I will show her my coin collection.
7. We exchanged phone numbers and promised to keep in touch.
We will exchange phone numbers and will promise to keep in touch.
8. I took the coat from him and walked towards the door.
I will take the coat from him and will walk towards the door.
9. They spoke French well but couldn't understand a word of English.
They will speak French well but can't understand a word of English.
10. We put our books and other things on the table.
We will put our books and other things on the table.

D. Rewrite the sentences in the future tense.

1. Vinod and Vineeth clean their room before dinner.

Vinod and Vineeth will clean their room before dinner.

2. The little children fed the horses and the cattle at the farm.

The little children will feed the horses and the cattle at the farm.

3. She was elated, but her sister was miserable.

She will be elated, but her sister will be miserable.

4. They were brave, even though they said they felt scared.

They would be brave, even though they would say they will feel scared.

5. She competes in the Asian Games today.

She will compete in the Asian Games today.

6. The thieves leapt out of the car and ran into the bank.

The thieves will leap out of the car and will run into the bank.

7. Shamita was confused when she opened the door.

Shamita will be confused when she opens the door.

8. Omit.

9. The wind blows the newspaper away.

The wind will blow the newspaper away.

10. The blow to the forehead killed him instantly.

The blow to the forehead will kill him instantly.