Chapter 9

The Fifth Golden Ticket

Answer these questions.

Q1) Why was Charlie so excited?

A1) Charlie was so excited as he had won the fifth Golden Ticket to visit Willy Wonka's marvellous chocolate factory.

Q2) Why was everyone in the family in a state of disbelief?

A2) Everyone in the family was in a state of disbelief because they could not believe that there was the Golden Ticket in the chocolate bar.

Q3) 'You must start making preparations at once!' What preparations did Grandpa Joe want Charlie to make?

A3) Grandpa Joe wanted that Charlie must start his preparations to keep himself clean before attending the chocolate factory. He must wash the face, comb hair, scrub hands, brush the teeth, blow nose, cut nails, polish the shoes, iron the shirt and also remove all the mud from the pants.

Q4) Why were the newspapermen and photographers at Charlie's door?

A4) The newspapermen and photographers were at Charlie's door as they all wanted to get full story for the front pages of the morning papers. They wanted to give good coverage to the holder of the fifth Golden Ticket.

Q5) Describe the Golden Ticket.

A5) The Golden Ticket was a very beautiful thing. It was there in the chocolate bar. It was made from sheet of pure gold hammered out almost to the thinness of paper. On one side of it, printed by some clever method in jet-black letters, was the invitation itself from Mr. Wonka, the owner of the chocolate factory. The Golden Ticket had many offers and surprises.
